Celebrating a special kind of Century ahead of Cup Match

As Cup Match approaches and excitement builds both within HSBC Bermuda and across the island, the Bank has further cause for celebrations, as it recognizes two of its longest serving employees.

Last week, HSBC celebrated Sharon Jacobs and Debbie Lewis as they respectively reached their 55th and 45th anniversary of employment with the Bank.

Many of the Bank's customers will recognize Sharon from their interactions with her on the front desk of the Bank's Premier centre. Her welcoming smile and friendly approach continue to make an indelible impression on whomever she encounters.

Debbie may not be as visible to the public and customers but her approach to everything she does is just as valued, as she continues to work tirelessly in support of her colleagues, in the Bank's Human Resources Department.

CEO, Steve Banner shared "All of us at HSBC are extremely proud of Sharon and Debbie for their immense contribution to the Bank and its customers over a combined century of employment.

"Both Sharon and Debbie continue to show great passion, commitment and dedication to their roles and their customers. Each is a great role model to colleagues across our bank. On behalf of all colleagues at HSBC, we extend them our warmest congratulations."
